

South of Rice Road parcel in Madison County

This approximate 50 acre parcel is currently being marketed as a prime residential development site. This property has water and sewer available and is located south of Rice Road and adjacent to the City of Madison. For more information on this parcel of land, please contact the Pearl River Valley Water Supply District via email at mharrison@therez.ms or call (601)605-6898.

